Rettig Music to Bring Professor Robert Culver to Westlake Area Schools

As part of Rettig Music's continued clinic series to music educators and students, Rettig Music is proud to bring Professor Culver to the Westlake area schools. One of the highlights of his tour will be as a guest clinician and conductor for the Parma All-City Orchestra Festival on February 14, 2008.

Professor Culver is a strings specialist who has been a key figure in the development of school orchestra programs throughout the United States. He is a Professor of Music Education at the University of Michigan. As one of the most sought-after consultants, clinicians, and conductors in the field of music education, he has been invited to 47 states and nine countries. He is a former violist with the Rochester Philharmonic, the Detroit Symphony, and the Hughes Quartet of Ohio State University. Prior to joining the faculty, Mr. Culver was string specialist in the Corvallis (Oregon) public schools, orchestra director in the Springfield and Salem (Oregon) public schools, member of the Ohio State University faculty, and conductor of youth orchestras in conjunction with the Columbus Symphony.
