

THE GLASSMEN DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS PRESENTS

ENTERTRAINMENT™

TRAINING THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW WITH THE MUSIC OF TODAY

Brass Musicianship: Bridging the Gap from Outdoors to Indoors

“Fundamentals that build better musicians at any level,
in any environment”

Presented by

KEITH HALLAS

and the

GLASSMEN BRASS SECTION

Keith Hallas is currently an Assist. Director of Bands at Central Crossing HS in Grove City, OH where he works with young musicians district wide. A native of Poland, OH Keith received his Bachelor's Degree in Music from Youngstown State, and later served as the graduate assist. and primary conductor of the Symphonic Band while working to complete a Masters in Instrumental Conducting with Dr. Stephen L. Gage.

Keith has been heavily involved in the Drum and Bugle Corps activity as a performer, instructor and clinician. He is currently the Brass Caption Supervisor for the Glassmen Drum and Bugle Corps, and was previously a performer with the American touring cast of the Tony and Emmy award winning Broadway show "Blast!".

In addition to his responsibilities at Central Crossing, Keith is an active performer, clinician, adjudicator, arranger, and private teacher in and around Ohio, North Carolina and Pennsylvania. He has performed with the Youngstown Symphony Orchestra, Warren Philharmonic, Jekyll Island Theater Orchestra, and The American Band of Providence. He is a member of National Band Association, Ohio Music Educators Association, and The International Trombone Association. He resides in downtown Columbus with his wife Julie.

Saturday—January 30, 2010
9:45 am Room CC211

OMEA Professional Development Conference
Duke Energy Center Cincinnati, Ohio

Proudly sponsored by:

Dynasty
USA

rettig music, inc.

1-800-52-MUSIC
www.rettigmusic.com

Defiance * Lima * Toledo * Westlake * Dublin

THE GLASSMEN DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS PRESENTS

ENTERTRAINMENT™

TRAINING THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW WITH THE MUSIC OF TODAY

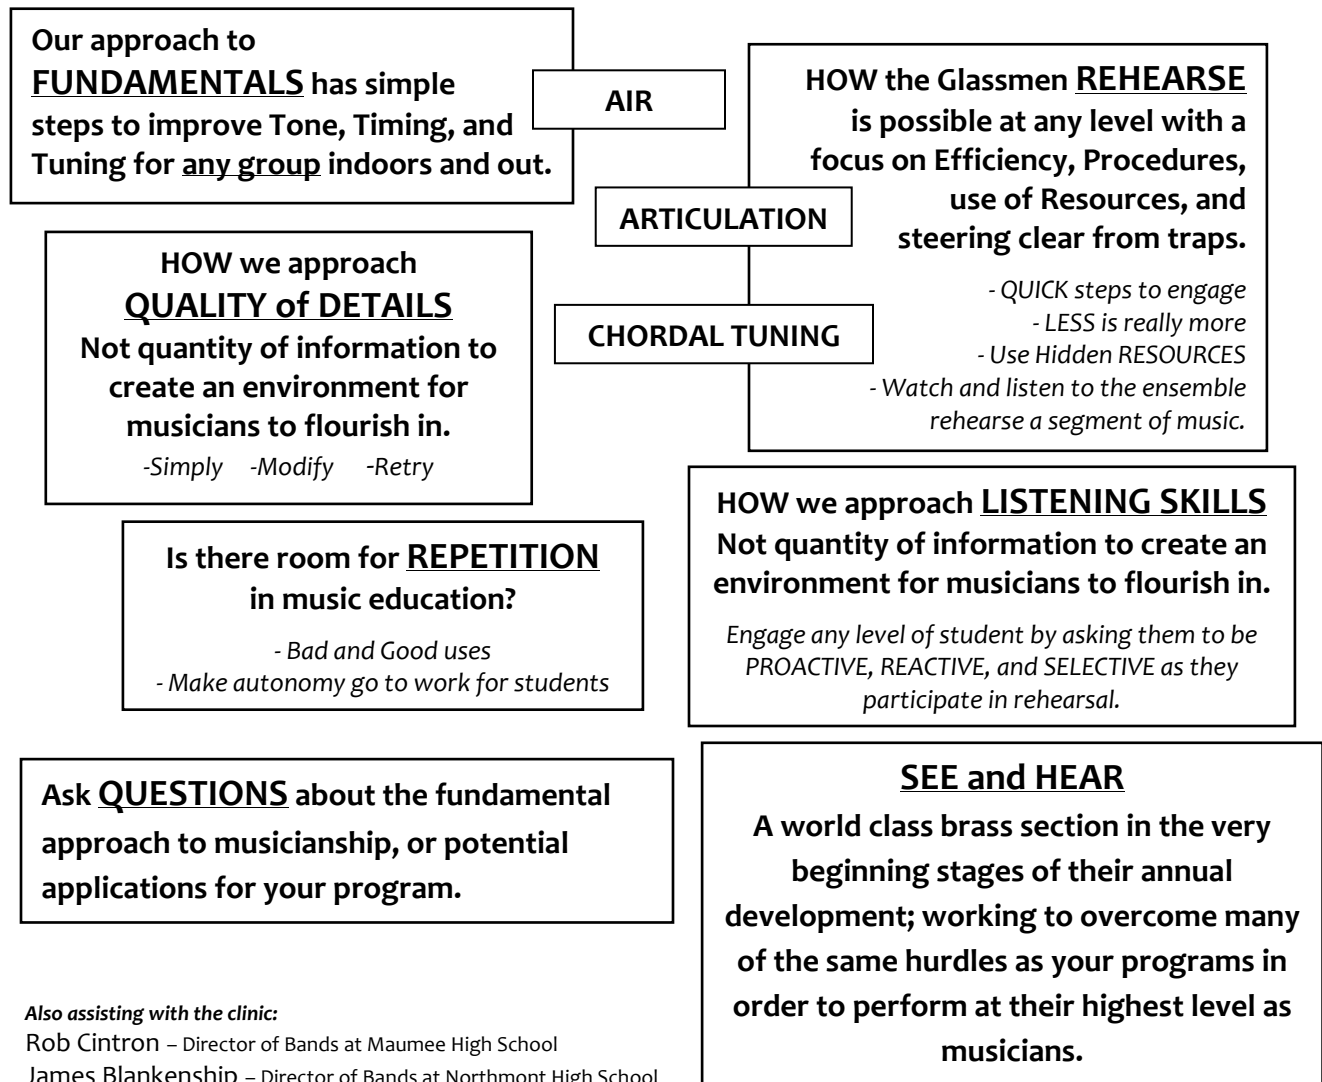

Brass Musicianship: Bridging the Gap from Outdoors to Indoors

“Fundamentals that build better musicians at any level, in any environment”

Presented by Keith Hallas and the GLASSMEN Drum & Bugle Corps

The Brass Section from the Glassmen Drum and Bugle Corps will present basic concepts and fundamentals that help prepare performers of all abilities not only for a summer of drum corps, but for a lifetime as musicians.

The session will include the following concepts that can be very easily applied to your program:

Also assisting with the clinic:

Rob Cintron – Director of Bands at Maumee High School

James Blankenship – Director of Bands at Northmont High School

Shane Harris – Instrumental Music, South-Western City Schools

Laura Lewis – Director of Bands, Forney ISD

For more information about ENTERTRAINMENT™ or the GLASSMEN Drum & Bugle Corps, please visit our website at www.glassmen.org